GREEK CO-EDS PLAN BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Panhellenic Scholarship Cup To Be Awarded at Dance at Rauscher's Friday, March 31.

A party par excellence, which promises to overshadow all other social events of the school year, not excluding the sumptuous Junior Prom and the brilliant Interfraternity ball of last evening, is scheduled for March 31, when the Panhellenic Association will give its annual dance at Rauscher's.

Novelty programs will be a feature of the prom, but deep secrecy surrounds the question of refreshments and other particulars, as the fair co-eds on the committee have refused to give out any further information. "Wait and see," is the response of Eunice Crabtree, president of the association.

The Panhellenic scholarship cup, which is awarded annually to the sorority attaining the highest scholarship averages, will be presented at the dance, and will remain in the possession of the winner for one year. Last year the cup was won by a small margin of points and much interest centers around the award.

The Panhellenic prom is an established custom of G. W. U., and happy are the awains who are fortunate enough to receive invitations from the lady Greeks to escort them to the party.

SALES TAX QUESTION SUBJECT OF DEBATE

Swarthmore and Hatchette Forensic Battlers To Meet in Wordy Combat Tonight.

When the G. W. U. debaters clash with the Swarthmore debaters tonight at 8.00 in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, two of the best teams in the history of the intercollegiate debate will have the opportunity of outwitting each other.

Of course, the G. W. U. debaters are in hopes that the student body will show their loyalty to the team by attending the debate in great numbers. Now that the football and basketball seasons are ended, the major activity of the collegiate year is debate, and the assurance is that this debate will be the most interesting one ever held between two universities.

The question for debate is: "Resolved, That Congress Should Enact Legislation Providing for a Sales Tax." The consideration of this question is now pending in Congress, and its chief advocate is Senator Smoot. It has met with a great deal of opposition as a method of raising the needed revenue, but arguments have been strongly presented on both sides.

During the past three weeks the men on the teams have worked strenuously to retain the debating honors held by G. W. U., and Coach Shorb assures us that he is not uneasy regarding the consequences of the debate and has every confidence the men will give their best.

The negative team will go to the West Virginia University, Morgantown, W. Va., while the affirmative team will remain here. Affirmative team: Jackson (leader), Zabel, Scheuffer; negative: Perlin (leader), Gilliland, Maxwell.

REST ROOM FUND GROWS.

The chocolate sale for the purpose of raising money for a rest room for girls in the W. U. C. rooms is progressing successfully. A committee will decide further ways and means and is confident the rooms will be very attractive when completed. It is to have a couch and medicine cabinet, a rug on the floors and curtains at the windows. Dark shades will make a restful atmosphere for aching heads. Committee Chairman Janeira Brooks and Bernice Veley, housekeeper, will welcome any contributions to the cause.

APRIL FIRST LAST DAY TO PAY FOR YEARBOOK

Those who pay the second installment of the student tax after April 1 will receive their copies of the Cherry Tree late. All those who desire copies must either subscribe now or pay the second installment of the tax on or before April 1. Positively no books in excess of the number paid for will be ordered.

ELECTS FOUR

Two To Receive Honor From Pyramid Society Are Athletes.

ORIGINATOR OF STUPID STEVEN REWARDED.

Bailee Springston, Football Captain; "Doc" Nagle, Fitzhugh Hurley and Brooks Hays Win Coveted Distinction.

Every man in this University, either consciously or unconsciously, looks forward to that time when his efforts among the student activities will bring him the much coveted reward of membership in the fraternity that stands for all that is highest and most noteworthy in the University; namely, the Pyramid Honor Society.

Membership in this society is for seniors only, and is the highest honor that may be conferred upon a student at George Washington University. The men meriting this distinction are those who have contributed, during their three years here, greatly toward the furtherance of student activities.

Four students have had this honor conferred upon them at the spring elections. They are:

Lawrence Brooks Hays, who has not only made a creditable record during his three years at George Washington, but distinguished himself at the University of Arkansas. He received an A. B. from Arkansas and while there was editor of the Arkansas Traveler, editor of the Razorback and member of the debating team. On entering the George Washington Law School in 1919 he became a member of the debating team which defeated Swarthmore. In his second year here he was made president of the junior class of the Law School, was a member of the

GHOST TO APPEAR APRIL FOOLS' DAY

New Talent Aids in Producing Promised Issue; Snappy Cover Prepared for Special Breezy Edition.

After a month's vacation, during which time it journeyed up to Nova Scotia, tied knots in cows' tails, set mysterious fires, and caused a whole family to flee in terror from their home, the "Ghost" is back in Washington and will make a public appearance at the University April 1st.

Since it shocked the faculty by appearing in the dead of winter, dressed in flimsy garments, it is not known what kind of trick it will play on April Fools' Day, but something "spicy" is to be expected. Albert Musher, one of "Ghost's" chaperones, says the April number of "Ghost" is to be the best ever published. New talent is to be introduced, among whom is Charles Lobdell, who contributed eleven drawings. A "snappy" cover has been prepared by Winifred DeVoe.

Albert Musher, the business manager, needs the services of a number of students to sell copies around at the various schools.

Be on your guard. Get the "Ghost" before it gets you.

HATCHETITE NETMEN TO MEET CALIFORNIA

Match To Be Played on Dumbarton Courts, May 11; Other Crack Teams To Be Played.

George Washington will compete with some of the crack tennis teams of the country this year. Besides playing the local teams, the Hatchettes will engage in a trial of strength with the west.

This match, with the University of Southern California, will be the most important one of the tennis season. Southern California will make an extensive tour of the country, meeting the best teams of the east, including the University of Minnesota, Harvard, Navy and most of the major colleges of the east.

G. W. will clash with the West-erners on May 11, on the exhibition courts of the Dumbarton Club. Admission will be free and adequate seating arrangements will be made for all those who desire to witness the match. Should G. W. win this match it will give them a high place in the country.

G. W. GIRLS' GLEE CLUB TO HAVE BUSY SEASON

Plan Big Spring Cantata; To Entertain Wounded Soldiers at Walter Reed Hospital.

Pep and more pep have been the predominating influences reigning among the girls in their glee club. Elated over their recent success, both financial and social, they are working hard to live up to the many opportunities that are now coming to them. Evidently their fame has spread far and wide, and daily invitations are arriving beseeching them to pour forth their school spirit in songs.

Last Saturday night the girls took a prominent part in the community sing at Central High School, under the efficient directorship of Mrs. Swett. The members received a tremendous ovation from the well filled auditorium, and the girls, in order to quiet the crowd, were forced to give an encore, which was the ever popular "Little Orphan Annie."

Next Monday they will sing at the College Women's Club. Their repertoire on this occasion will be one of culture, the more classical holding sway instead of the lighter songs.

But the concert that will be the most fun is the one at Walter Reed, for which arrangements are now being made. The program will be the same as the recent one—only more elaborate, with the idea of cheering the boys and making them feel G. W. has an active interest in them.

Above all, the glee club is putting all their time and energy into a spring cantata that will fairly take this University by storm.

ADDRESSES CHAPEL ON PEOPLE OF INDIA

Education of the lower caste people of India and a more thorough system of schooling are the two factors that will cause India's revival from her present condition, according to Prof. Goonaskara, who addressed the chapel held in Lisner Hall Wednesday, March 22.

"The Hindu is a born student," said Prof. Goonaskara. "Many of them are now in attendance at universities in Europe and America. The status of the people is being raised because of the institutions of learning throughout the country. As a usual thing, the women are not educated, but many of them are now well trained and in public life, as doctors, lawyers and lecturers."

Prof. Goonaskara feels that India will be able to get through her political and economic troubles and take her place with the foremost nations of the world. She will owe her progress to education, he declared.

SIGNS OF SPRING

"In the spring the co-eds' fancy Knees and socks come into view."

Spring is with us once more. The birds sing merrily as they flit from bough to bough. The tender buds of the maple are pushing their fuzzy heads into the al-luvial atmosphere. The green deepens on the golf courses in Potomac Park and the twinkle of parking lights on Lovers' Point is increasing with warm suggestive-ness.

Signs point to spring around our Alma Flapper. Our secretary has ordered a new suit. The co-eds have purchased suits of many colors, warm-lined scarfs, dizzy sweaters, straw derbys. The Profs are shining their shoes and brushing their hair with more than the accustomed thoroughness. The Rabbit Hole has bought a new cup. Bryan Morse has been in dry dock for repairs.

The male flappers are brushing up their lines and digging out their white pants. The old man's car is being borrowed with more frequency than before. Hair nets are being sold in larger quantities. Hair pins are in great demand to make up for those lost the night before.

Easter vacation is near. Mileage books are being bought on the W. B. & A.—especially "A." The co-eds are showing delectable ex-panses of area once hidden by wool. Lethargies and languid poses are quite popular. Spring has come.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon Wins Floor Game

Theta Delta Chi Five Commences Contest With Big Lead Through Work of Roberts, Star of Fray With Six Baskets; Stephens Best for Winning Quint.

THRILLING INTERFRAT CLASSIC WITNESSED BY MORE THAN THREE HUNDRED ARDENT ROOTERS

S. A. E. Stages Big Rally in Fourth Period, Gathering in Six Hoopers, After Knotting Count at 17 All at End of Third Frame; Fracas Speedy From Start to Finish; Many Random Shots Made.

By ROBT. H. McNEIL.

Plenty of pep, punch, hard fought rough and tumble basketball mixed with clever scintillating passing game, a crowd of over three hundred frat fans who kept the air filled with ear-splitting yells of encouragement and advice to their warriors and a thrilling finish from behind featured the interfrat classic which was won by Sigma Alpha Epsilon, in a last period rally over last year's champions, Theta Delta Chi, 30-19, at the Epiphany gym Tuesday, March 21.

Theta Delt got away to an early lead through the clever work of "Al" Roberts, who ran wild, shooting almost at will, ringing up five

LAW SCHOOL ANNUAL BANQUET PLANS MADE

Dean Ferson To Be Toastmaster; Class Presidents To Speak; Dancing Listed on Program.

Plans for the ninth annual Law School banquet have just been completed by the Law School Senate, according to Sarah Tilghman Hughes, president of the Senate.

The banquet will be held at Rauscher's April 8 at 7 p. m. Dean Ferson will be toastmaster, and speeches will be made by Hon. Houston Thompson, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, and Justice Wendell Phillips Stafford, who will be the honor guests. The class presidents, Leslie Jackson, '22; Joseph W. Hazell, '23; and Edward Scheuffer, '24, will also be speakers. Prof. Hector G. Spaulding and Arthur Berbert will render solos. The banquet will be followed by dancing in the spacious ballroom, and a number of surprises will feature the entertainment, according to a member of the committee on arrangements. Harry E. Sokolov, of last year's graduating class, will direct the music for the occasion.

In order to provide for the comfort of those who attend, a limit of 350 covers has been set by those in charge. Persons contemplating attending should secure tickets, which will be $3.50, without delay by applying to any member of the Senate or Secretary of the Law School.

MRS. LOW-STANDARDS CONVICTED OF GUILT

Jury in Y. W. C. A. Mock Trial Also Sentences Her Evil Children To Punishment.

Great excitement reigned after chapel Monday as the dramatic trial of Mrs. Low-Standards drew to a close. A verdict of guilty was brought in by the jury foreman, Stupid Steve, and the swooning of Mrs. Low-Standards and her children, Gertie Gossip, Chronica Cutt, Patricia Parasite and the We-cant-be-bothered pair, were ousted from the University forever.

This mock trial represents what the Y. W. C. A. girls of the University think of you if you cut class, gossip about your friends, talk loudly in the library, fail to attend chapel, knock G. W. or commit any other crime.

The trial itself was a thrilling affair—the jurymen were literally roped with the lariat of the noble sheriff, played by Alice Heyl. After two witnesses testified that the family of Mrs. Low-Standards ought to be annihilated forever, that languishing but loud lady went on the stand and made it clear she was very much abused. Isabel Buntun, as Mrs. Low-Standards, gave a very delightful performance. Her children were played by Mary Vaccaro, Ruth Green, Maxine Rolfe, June Cooper, Margaret Daly and Alice Cushman. Janeira Brooks, as attorney for the defense, and Prosecuting Attorney Nelda Umbeck were especially good. Elizabeth Kehr was a typically snuffy clerk of the court, while Margaret Soars as judge lent dignity to the scene. Elizabeth Kehr and Nelda Umbeck were the authors of the piece.

baskets in the first period, while S. A. E. had to be content with three foul markers made by Pease, putting the former champs on the long end of a 10-3 count at this stage of the fray.

Roberts started the second period by successfully adding two points by way of the foul route, putting his team in the van by nine counts. Here Sigma Alpha started to climb on their opponents, when Pease, the diminutive forward, tallied twice, closely followed by one by MacAllister. Theta Delt then added to its score when "Al" captured his sixth floor basket. Two counters from the 15-foot line by Pease ended the scoring for the half with T. D. C. leading 14-11.

After the rest period S. A. E. came back evidently with orders to stick to Roberts. At any rate, he failed to score again, so closely was he guarded. Stephens, the Sigs' husky center, broke the ice with a floor counter, bringing the result to read 14-13. Foul shoots by Roberts and Pease gave each side an additional point. Briggs, Theta Delt forward, then rang the net.

"ROUND TABLE TALKS" PLAN OF WOMEN'S DEAN

Miss Anna Rose, acting dean of women of the University, after the chapel service Wednesday, March 15, spoke to the girls concerning her plans and hopes for her new work. She presented her idea of "Round Table Talks" with the girls which she wishes to hold every other Tuesday morning. At these meetings social and moral questions of the day will be discussed, as well as everything that interests college girls. Her suggestion was enthusiastically received and she announced that the first meeting would be held Tuesday, March 28, at 11:15 in the chapel. All girls of the University are cordially invited to attend.

PHI LAMBDA MU INITIATES.

On Saturday evening, March 18, Phi Lambda Mu sorority of George Washington University, held its initiation proceedings, the following neophytes being initiated: Bertha Abramson, Sarah Bernstein, Reva Silver, Tessie Epstein, Esther Kaplan, Rebecca Kaminsky, Ethel Wolf and Helen Kaminsky. The initiation dance will be held in the near future.

Y. W. C. A. TO HOLD ELECTION. The annual election of the Y. W. C. A. will immediately follow chapel Monday.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS TO ADDRESS CHAPEL

President Howard Lincoln Hodgkins has announced that M. Guillaume Fatio, president of the Societe des Artes of Geneva, Switzerland, will address the chapel services of the University next Monday, March 27, 1922, at 12:15, on "International Questions." M. Fatio will be introduced by Dr. Jayne Hill, formerly president of the University of Rochester, one time Minister to Switzerland and later Ambassador to Germany.

Dean Hodgkins urges all students to attend, promising in case the chapel will not hold the crowd, to move to the Concordia Church Auditorium.

WASHINGTON, D. C. MARCH 24, 1922

The Social Whirl

A person coming from another university is impressed with the great number of social activities given by the students of George Washington. The grand society events held in the name of George Washington University, the class and organization dances, and the fraternity affairs truly aggregate to proportions which excel those in all but a very few other universities the country over.

There is just reason for this. Here we have no campus where students may congregate and develop friendships, and a larger part of the students attend evening classes, which allows them little time to mix with one another at the University proper, so the social occasions are practically the best mediums by which the students can develop common interests and a unified spirit.

The old saying, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," can be overworked, and the extreme can be reached in that some students wholly sacrifice studies for social pleasures; but we believe for the average student the pleasure accruing from his attendance at George Washington and his work in the school are fairly proportional.

The ideal to be reached by a university is to have sufficient social activities to enable every student to take part. There should at least be enough society within the school to enable the socially inclined to satisfy their desire for pleasure therein and not seek amusement elsewhere. Although other activities should not be sacrificed for social events, there is no reason why George Washington University should not claim its own.

"PLEASE BE QUIET IN THE LIBRARY" is the greeting that noisily shouts at one as he enters the portal of—study (?).

The Musical Comedy Gives Way

Because of lack of support from the students, the manager of the musical comedy has given up the idea of producing the show that would have been an innovation in George Washington theatrical performances. The new show is promised to be an improvement on plays given by students in former years, but it will in no way come up to the hopes and dreams of the few talented men behind it. What is the reason a regular show could not have been put over here? What caused the discouragements to the producers which forced them to resort to a play instead of a live musical comedy? It was brought about through the lack of support of students. The underlying principal of human nature demonstrates itself in persons attending George Washington in that they are anxious enough to assume positions which bring large honors and publicity, but dislike engaging in any activities that call for hard work.

BUSY SOCIAL SEASON FOR FRATERNITIES

The season for fraternity activities is now in full sway; namely, initiation, installation and founder's day banquets and dances.

Delta Tau Delta fraternity gave their annual initiation banquet at the Raccar Club February 18. The principal speakers were Hon. Mr. Henning, Assistant Secretary of Labor, and Dr. Borden, G. W. U. Hospital physician.

Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity gave their forty-ninth annual founders' day banquet at the Lafayette Hotel March 16. President Earle Wallach acted as toastmaster, and the principal speakers were Dr. Walter H. Conley, grand president of the national fraternity, and Drs. Jordan and Fell.

Kappa Sigma fraternity will give their alumni smoker Friday night, March 24, at the Kappa Sigma House, and there are expected as honored guests besides Kappa Sigs, the Hon. Admiral T. Grayson, attendant physician to former President Woodrow Wilson, and John Covert Boyd, only living founder of the Kappa Sigma fraternity. There is expected an attendance of about 200.

Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity gave their annual installation banquet in the Oak Room of the Raleigh Hotel Friday evening, March 17. Robert W. Marshall acted as toastmaster, and the principal speakers were William L. Phillips, grand secretary of the national organization of Sigma Phi Epsilon, and James B. Webster, former grand secretary.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave their annual banquet Thursday, March 9, in the Blue Room of the City Club. Neyle Colquitt acted as toastmaster, and the principal speakers were Senator Harrison, Senator Pittman, Senator Watson and Admiral Spitt. An informal dance was given Wednesday night of this week in winding up their successful basketball season.

Sigma Chi fraternity gave an informal dance last Saturday night. The goats gave an unusually St. Patrick's (green) performance. The music was furnished by the Sigma Chi orchestra, and there was an attendance of between 40 and 50 couples.

Theta Delta Chi will give their annual anniversary banquet and the principal speakers of the evening will be Senator France, Assistant Postmaster General Bartlett and Dr. F. S. McElwee, dean of the Foreign Service School at Georgetown University. An informal dance was held at the house Wednesday evening and the music was furnished to the 60 couples present by the Theta Delta Chi orchestra. Two new pledges are also announced as J. H. Briggs and R. Craven.

Sigma Nu fraternity will hold a big dance and banquet on April 21 and April 22 when their district convention meets here. An informal dance was also held on March 11, and it was enjoyed by about 30 couples present.

The ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS

offered by the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston for the best answer to Mr. Edison's question, "Who Was John Hancock?" has been awarded to Leon V. Quigley, a student at the Worcester (Mass.) Polytechnic Institute. This answer, giving a correct, concise and comprehensive statement of the position occupied by John Hancock in American history, is printed below in full.

"Who Was John Hancock?"

JOHN HANCOCK was an American statesman and patriot. His signature is found on the oldest and most important documents of Massachusetts, and of the United States. He was the first signer of the Declaration of Independence and was the first Governor of Massachusetts.

John Hancock was born at Quincy, Massachusetts, in 1737. He graduated from Harvard College, and entering upon his uncle's business became a successful merchant in Boston. He gained much in social power and in wealth, being meanwhile justly popular for his integrity and ability.

He was in 1765-1770 a selectman of Boston and a member of the general court. With Samuel Adams he led the Massachusetts Whigs, and only escaped capture at Lexington and Concord by virtue of the valiant fight by the Minute Men on the "Nineteenth of April in '75."

John Hancock was subsequently known in various positions: as President of the Continental Congress, as Major-General of the Massachusetts military forces, as President of the Constitutional Convention. He died at Quincy, Massachusetts, October eighth, 1793.

The historical position of John Hancock is unique in State and Nation. He wielded great political influence but was always liberal and public-spirited. His name is most prominent as a Whig leader during the American Revolution in such events as the Boston Massacre, the Boston Tea Party and the battles of Lexington and Concord.

John Hancock signed his name first to the Declaration of Independence. He thus risked his own "life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness" that these privileges might be obtained for others to enjoy. To this end he "pledged his life, his fortune, and his sacred honor."

That he was popular and efficient may be judged from the fact that he was for ten years Governor of Massachusetts, being elected annually to this office by popular vote.

LAW SCHOOL PROBLEMS DISCUSSED AT BANQUET

Members of Legal Honorary Fraternity Pledge Aid to George Washington University.

Over seventy members of the Phi Delta Phi and Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternities met in a joint banquet at the Hotel Raleigh last Saturday evening for the purpose of discussing mutual problems of the George Washington Law School. Dean Pearson of the Law School presided as toastmaster. The honor guests were Justice Stafford, Col. W. A. Colston of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Professors C. S. Collier, Frank Smith, C. M. Updegraff, and John W. Townsend, and Joseph A. Jordan, Secretary of the Law School.

The principal speakers included Justice Stafford, Col. Colston, H. C. Kilpatrick, president of Phi Delta Phi, and L. Brookes Hayes, president of Phi Alpha Delta.

Members of the two fraternities pledged themselves to safeguard the ethics of the legal profession by looking with disfavor upon corrupt practices. A perpetual endowment fund for the Law School, the backing of a G. W. Law School Journal and the raising of our standards of pre-requisites and curriculum were discussed.

Similar gatherings will be held annually for the purpose of discussing such problems of mutual interest. Dean Pearson expressed his approval of the idea and offered his fullest cooperation.

GIRLS' ACTIVITIES.

Miss Martha McGrew, girls' basketball coach, is formulating plans to organize a G. W. club for all girls who have received letters in sports. Arrangements await the approval of the Student Council.

Daisy Robison, girls' basketball manager, assisted by Marguerite Daly, assistant manager, entertained the girls of the varsity and reserve teams at tea last Sunday afternoon at her home.

All members of the girls' varsity team have been recommended to receive letter awards. Action awaits the approval of the Student Council.

Girl swimmers are planning to hold a 5-mile swim in the Potomac River near Chain Bridge within the coming month. Coach Woodford emphasizes the importance of this test as a means of proving the endurance power of the participants.

Mae Markley, manager of girls' tennis, announces plans are under way for the tennis season, and that courts are being arranged for. Several of last year's players are here this year, and a good team is expected.

HOLDS HOUSEWARMING.

More than 250 attended the housewarming held by Kappa Tau Omega fraternity at 1734 K Street on Sunday, March 19, composing members of the faculty and study body and friends of the fraternity. There was much favorable comment on the homelike atmosphere of the new quarters, combined with their suitability for fraternity purposes, the convenient location, and the progress made by the organization in the first year of its existence.

Faculty members present were President and Mrs. Hodgkins, Dean and Mrs. Pearson, Prof. and Mrs. Lavery, Prof. and Mrs. Updegraff, and Profs. Michelson, Miller and Chace.

Members of the G. W. U. sororities assisted in the serving of tea and ices.

WINS FLOOR GAME

ting to make the standing read 17-14. Again Steve got the range and, together with a free toss by Pease, knotted the count at 17 all as the whistle blew to end the third interval.

Shortly after the fourth period got under way Roberts was ejected by way of the four personal foul route, breaking up the team work and morale of the former champs. Two baskets by Simpson, three by MacAllister, one by Stevens and a free toss by Pease put the count of Sigma Alphas at 30, while Hixson, who had taken Roberts' place, made Theta Delta's last tally for the count of 19.

"Al" Roberts, of the losers, was unquestionably the star of the affair, being the leading scorer of the game with six baskets and three foul shots. He scored all of Theta Delta's points in the first half.

Stephens, center man for the winners, and Pease played great games, the former banging the hoop for three baskets, while the latter tallied twice and tossed in eight from the freedom line.

Altogether the losers made more of their opportunities, while the present interfrat champs at times shot like wild men, taking many random heaves, a great number of which failed to hit the backboard.

Play was furious from start to finish, although it slowed up a little in the last few minutes, as the players could not stand the terrific pace which had been maintained from the beginning to the final whistle, which announced that the interfrat battle of the ages had become history.

Line-up:

S. A. E.	Position.	T. D. C.
Pease	Forward	Roberts
MacAllister	Forward	Briggs
Stephens	Center	Ladd
Potter	Guard	Fisher
Simpson	Guard	Hough

Substitutions—Hixson for Hough, Hough for Hixson, Hixson for Roberts, Floor goals—Pease (2), MacAllister (4), Stephens (3), Simpson (2), Roberts (6), Briggs, Hixson. Foul goals—Pease (8 out of 20); Roberts (3 out of 5); Ladd (missed 7). Referee—James Y. Hughes. Time of periods—10 minutes.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

The engagement of Prof. Joseph H. Roe, a teacher of chemistry in the University, to Miss Grace Lanck, of Winchester, Va., is announced.

EUROPE FOR ARTFUL LOVERS IS NEW SLOGAN FOR TOUR

Numerable Possibilities for Romance Under Moonlit Skies is Foreseen.

"Europe for Artful Lovers" is the proper version of the headlines of the now innocent looking little pamphlet on the bulletin board in Lasser Hall which reads, "Europe for Art Lovers," and then goes on to tell of the European tour to be taken (so it has been whispered abroad) by a party of just 10 lovely damsels and just 10 noble youths.

Think of the possibilities arising during such a tour, possibilities which will last for 48 moonlight nights on the dreamy ocean or sailing on the soft Mediterranean Sea or sitting in some enchanted spot under the gentle Italian sky.

"And when they get to Venice, and sail around in those gondolas," a student who was discussing the trip remarked, and then paused with a wistful, knowing look; evidently he has heard of Venice. Nor was the person who arranged the folder advertising the trip entirely ignorant of human nature when, under the title "Europe for Art Lovers," he placed, not a famous painting, but a Venetian gondola in its native haunts.

Besides the nights there will be 48 days during which art must be viewed, but even that may be a blessing in disguise, if the travelers will discover which pictures are to be shown and have some appropriate remark ready to make when each is viewed. And during the days of the ocean passage there are promised three substantial meals and two or three lunches, besides bottled waters of all kinds and strength, to while away the time between the starlight hours.

Will the 10 youths and 10 maidens ever come back or will it be 10 couples who will return on August 4, not to the land of the free but to the home of the brave? Being Americans, the assumption is that they will be ready to leave the binding romance when they see again the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor.

COLUMBIAN NEGATIVE RECEIVES DECISION

Will Stage Debate With Enosians Friday, March 31.

The negative was given the verdict of the judges in debate of the Columbian Debating Society Friday night on the subject, "Resolved, That the Four-Power Pact Should Be Ratified by the Senate Without Reservations." The affirmative team was composed of Messrs. DeBrodes and Schmidt and the negative team of Messrs. Marshall and Spoerri. J. Fuller Spoerri was voted first individual honor, and Mr. Schmidt second.

The debate was followed by an instructive exhibition of the parliamentary procedure of the opening and conducting of a public mass meeting, under the direction of Mr. DeBrodes.

The meeting of the society on Friday evening, March 31, will be held at 2023 G Street. At this time their men will meet members of the Enosian Society in debate on the subject: "Resolved, That Immigration Should Be Prohibited for Two Years." The Columbian Debating Society will argue the negative.

FIVE STUDENTS DROPPED.

Five students have been dropped from the University rolls and fourteen others have been given a flunk mark for the semester, following faculty action this week on the reports of professors regarding cheating in the mid-year examinations. President Hodgkins stated that this action inaugurates a rigid campaign to stop all dishonest practices during examinations, and that any student found cheating in the future will be summarily dealt with.

In the future any student found guilty of any dishonesty can be at once unconditionally dropped from the course, at the discretion of the professor, action by the faculty immediately following.

SOKOLOV ORCHESTRA FOR EASTER DANCES

G. W. Graduate Promises the Best in Music for University Functions;
Will Play for Many Clubs.

Fraternities, clubs, associations, and the various other school organizations are industriously making their plans for the Easter holidays. Dances and parties galore are in store for all—a word to the wise is sufficient.

The Sokolov Orchestra, under the personal direction of Harry Sokolov, advises that dates with them be made as soon as possible, as they are very busy furnishing orchestras during the holiday period. Sokolov is a former George Washington student, and so desires to give the University the best possible service. He may be reached by calling North 2845 or the Franklin Square Hotel between 6.30 and 8.30 o'clock.—Adv.

PLANS RADIO COURSE.

A course in radio is to be given next year under the department of physics, according to the plans of Prof.
T. B. Brown, head of the department.
The course will embody the principles and practice of radio communication, including the elementary theory of electrical oscillations and electromagnetic waves. All wishing to enter this course must have previously had physics 1 or 2 and mathematics 18 or 19 (calculus). The radio course will comprise two lectures and one laboratory period a week. The course carries six semester-hour credits.

The physics lecture room will be open next Monday night and other nights which will be announced thereafter, for those who are interested in hearing concerts, speeches, etc., received by radio from other radio stations.

NURSES HOLD DANCE.

The student nurses of George Washington University Hospital entertained at a very enjoyable dance at their home, Thirteenth and L Streets, on March 17. This dance was one of a series of such dances that the nurses are giving. They are all greatly liked and are very popular.

staffs of The Hatchet and the Cherry Tree. This year Mr. Hays is a member of the debating team, on the staff of Ghost and president of Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity. Including the last mentioned, Mr. Hays is a member of Pi Delta Epsilon honorary journalistic fraternity; Tau Kappa Alpha, honorary debating fraternity; and Sigma Chi.

Fitzhugh Lee Hurley has a very extraordinary record of activities during his attendance here. He came here after having been at the University of North Carolina for two years and having served in the Navy during the war, having had training at the Dunwoody Naval School. He holds the degree of B. C. S. from the Washington School of Accountancy and an A. B. from G.
W. U. and is anticipating adding an
LL. B. from the Law School next year.
Last year he was elected vice president of the freshman law class of the Law School. This year he served on the Junior Prom committee, is manager of the basketball team and a member ex-officio of the Student Council. He is a member of the G. W. Club, Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity and Delta Theta Phi legal fraternity.

Ralph Schmidt Nagle also has been connected with numerous activities during the time he has been at the University. He has been a member of the editorial staff of The Hatchet for the past four years, a member of the editorial staff of the Cherry Tree for two years, and is this year a member of the editorial staff of Ghost. In 1919 he was president of the sophomore engineering class, has been a member of the G. W. U. Chemical Society for three years, the Interfraternity Association for two years, and the G. W. U.
Players for the past four years. In 1920 he was in the cast of the junior play, while in 1921 he was chairman of the junior play committee and this year is president of the G. W. U. players. He served on the Junior Week committee last year as well as this year, and is also a member of the Student Council for this year. He belongs to Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity and Gamma Tau Zeta journalistic fraternity.

George Baillie Springston was a member of the football team last year and captained it this year, one of its most successful seasons. He also played on the basketball team last year. He was chairman of the junior reception committee this year. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Council To Use Straw Vote To Feel
Out Undergraduates on Proposed Constitution.

Straw voting for the new plan of the Student Council of George Washington University, which would separate the administration of athletics from the government of other student activities, in order to ascertain the sentiment of the student body in regard to the proposed change, was discussed at a meeting of the council March 15. No definite action was taken in the matter, however, because it was deemed best to confer with the publication heads first, as the best means of holding a vote is through The Hatchet.

Members of the council spoke very favorably of the show William S.
Becker is organizing and stated their belief in its success in the future. The committee appointed to work with Mr.
Becker in the production of the drama reported he is carrying on the work in a very creditable manner and there is no action to be taken on it at the present time.

No action was taken on the appointment of a basketball manager for the 1923 season because Fitzhugh Hurley, manager for 1922, has not been able to complete his report on account of the illness of Bryan Morse.

PLAN ATTRACTIVE FEATURES.

Two unusually attractive features have been planned for El Circulo Español during the month of April.
One is a Cervantes program which will probably be held about April 15 in the Auditorium of Lisner Hall and the other a dance which will be held shortly after, probably in the same place.

It has been found necessary, according to Miss Caroline Peterson, secretary, to postpone the social meeting of the club scheduled for the latter part of this month.
